- Pre- and Post-Weekend Procedures Flow like Clockwork – yet Spirit-driven
- Full Weekends at a new Retreat Center, focused on God and without distractions
- Vibrant Secuelas and committed participation in Reunion Groups
- A legacy of Sponsorship within our church groups and extending to nearby cities
- Strong yet humble leadership, obedient to the leading of the Holy Spirit
- A heavenly host of saints breaking through the enemy's barriers in persistent service
- A bastion of Piety, Study, and Action in a sick and dying community

Of this we know: God loves Tres Dias Cleveland. And so, like Andrew, all we have to do is go get those He has put in our lives and bring them into His presence. Then, once they have experienced Him in this unique and powerful way, help them find others in their lives and bring those people into His presence. It's really a very simple process. But there's one small thing: the Enemy. He will do everything he can to distract, discourage, and divide.

Time is short. Let's treat this opportunity as if we knew of a certainty that we only have a few years left before we 'rest with our fathers.' Tres Dias – Strengthening the local church. There's nothing quite like it. It's about as close as you can get to a sure thing. That's why I like to call it "The most authentic Christian experience I know of."

Blessings, Mike Wise, Arizona Cursillo #34

Mike had asked me to write a little something on this his last President's letter, so here I go! As I sat here wondering what to say I prayed "What would God have to say?" and here it is

To Mike – Well Done....
To the Community – Fear Not....
And to myself – Be Still....

Based on the last point....

Community News

Fisherman May 2007

Thanks to the nominating committee (Carolyn Culbertson (chair), Jean Driggs, Tim Elek, Dave Harsch, Emerson McArthur) for their diligent work in coming up with the following slate of candidates for election:

Vice President – Diane Hrubik
Treasurer – Jim Hart
4th Day – Dan Kearney
Outreach – Lezlee Sims

Proposed revisions to our by-laws are available for review at our website (www.tresdiascleveland.org). They will be voted upon at the special secretariat meeting being held just prior to the start of the May 12 secuela. Officers will also be elected at this meeting.

It's not too early to start looking for candidates for the next men's weekend. Do you know how to sponsor a candidate and what your responsibilities as a sponsor entail? If not, check out the Tres Dias Cleveland website.

SOUNDS OF SECRETARIAT – April 17 meeting:

- The nominating committee reported the slate of candidates for election as officers at the special May 12 secretariat meeting. (See slate elsewhere in newsletter)
- Chrys Pfahl has agreed to be our Tres Dias Historian
- We are gathering information from past secretariat minutes so that an up to date procedures manual can be prepared.
- We need to pray about whether we are being called to sponsor a new Tres Dias community.
- The Women's spring weekend will be held at Cedar Hills if an acceptable date is available.
- The critique of Women's 16 was presented by Diane Harsch.
- A task force was set up to explore alternate sites for future weekends.
- The weekend application forms have been revised to include the Tres Dias Statement of Belief. The revised forms are now available on our website.
- Mike Wise has submitted our re-charter paperwork to International Tres Dias as required every two years.
