April 2010

From the President.....

God is Faithful

*"God who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord is faithful."
1 Corinthians 1:9*

Utterly loyal, is just one meaning of faithfulness. God is utterly loyal, wouldn't you agree? God's loyalty to us does not depend on our loyalty we have with Him or with each other. God will always be faithful in what He promises. This is because God is Love and that is why He loves. His love does not derive from actions or by motives. Nothing we did, or do or are going to do will make Him love us more or less. He loves us unconditionally and faithfully. His love never changes because He never changes. This is His character; this is who He is, as described in Psalms 89:8, "O LORD God Almighty! Where is there anyone as mighty as you, LORD? Faithfulness is your very character." "Great is Thy Faithfulness," one of the most recognized hymns, brings to light His unchanging ways, His very nature.

Wouldn't it be great to have a bit more of God's character in each of us, to be utterly loyal to one another? To love unconditionally and remain faithful regardless of what happens or how you are treated. Well the Holy Spirit does offer this trait to us, but only when we allow ourselves to be controlled by the Holy Spirit. "Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful apart from me." John 14:4 We need to be loyal to and in love with Jesus. The more we love and live for Him the more we begin to inherit His traits. We then begin to find it easier to love and serve others.

We are part of a community God created and has blessed. Our little band of brothers and sisters here in northern Ohio and beyond, has been called to "love our neighbors as ourselves." God promises we will overflow with joy when we remain in His love! I pray the Holy Spirit overtakes my and your life so that we may remain faithful and be utterly loyal to each other and to the Great Creator.

As we approach the day we celebrate Jesus' resurrection, let me remind you, you too have access to the same Holy Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead. God is faithful and keeps His promises. Are you in need of a moral and spiritual revival? I know I am. Join with me in seeking the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives.

HE HAS RISEN, HE HAS RISEN INDEED!

Please be in prayer for those who are called to be candidates on Women's Weekend #19. And let's not forget the team that has been united by God. These gals and one guy having been working hard to be the hands and feet of God. Of course pray for our community, that we too would be witnesses by covering this weekend in prayer, palanca and service. Let us be faithful, just as God is faithful and promises through the words of Paul: "being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it onto completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Phillipians 1:6

Community News

Dear Community,

I have included in this month's Newsletter other communities who will have their own weekends in the month of March. I would encourage you, along with Nanci and myself, to participate in sending palanca their way. Here we have an opportunity to be God's hands and feet, no matter the distance, to extend love and grace just like we received during our personal weekend. I like the way the international website describes palanca, "Bear in mind that letters in and of themselves are not palanca! Letters are merely one vehicle in which we convey the actual palanca being done at that time. In other words, the effort, thoughts and prayers that go into the letters are actually the palanca, not the letters themselves."
(<http://www.tresdias.org>)

Here are examples of palanca:

PERSONAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on behalf of individual candidates and team members. It is most frequently demonstrated in personal notes that are not meant for anyone but the recipient.

- A brief note of encouragement
- Reassurance that God will meet the candidate right where he is
- Adding an encouraging scripture is recommended (reminding of God's promises, etc).
- Let them know you are praying for them (and do it!).
- It is important to have personal palanca available for Friday and Saturday. (It's a lever, so use it).
- You can include small items that can fit in an envelope can be included, e.g., "pass it on" cards, small bookmarks, small pins, etc.
- Do not refer to any special events that happen over the weekend. Your palanca may not be delivered when you expect it to be, so you wouldn't want to spoil the surprise.
- Do not refer to home or family. It's important to maintain the focus and sequestered nature of the weekend.
- Do not talk about how you felt on your weekend. The candidate may be having a very different experience and you wouldn't want to set him/her up for disappointment.
- Do not mark palanca for delivery at specific times. You may specify a particular day, as well as "am" or pm", but not specific times.

GENERAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on the weekend in general. It is most frequently demonstrated in notes, letters or posters that are addressed to the team and candidates, often accompanied by small gift items or tokens.

- The letter should be addressed to the team and candidates on a particular weekend. It should include the actual palanca that you will be providing to the weekend - such as:
 - A gift of prayer. Let them know that you will be praying for them. Perhaps you will pray for the weekend every time you have to stop at a red light, or something like that. They should know it. (And you should be sure to honor your commitment)
 - A gift of sacrifice: Perhaps you made something that you are giving to the weekend. Let them know the spiritual significance of the item.
 - Try to include an encouraging scripture. Using the theme scripture of the weekend helps to promote the unity of the weekend.
 - The letter shouldn't be too long - a maximum of one typewritten page. Keep in mind that general palanca is read by the auxiliaries throughout the weekend when time permits, so the letter should not be too long or complex as its meaning may be lost.
- ⇒ This IS where you can refer to your own weekend ("I sat where you are sitting...")
- ⇒ If possible, include small tokens for the team and candidates. The items should have some spiritual significance and can be as simple as some chocolate or candy, as complex as craft items that you and your Reunion Group made, and anything in between. Remember it's the thought, prayer and service that's important, not the actual item itself.
- ⇒ General palanca is also provided in other ways:
 - Providing break food (snacks).
 - Providing candy for the tables.
 - Providing flowers for the dining room or Rollo room.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- † Pastor Marc Wolff, who suffered a mild heart attack.
- † Monica and Herb Liebacher- Praises for answered prayers. Herb and Monica returned safely from China with their daughter Emmeline Liebacher. Emme-Jin, is her nick name, derived by combining her American name and her Chinese name. She is 11 years old, however her 12th birthday is on April 10th. Please keep Emme-Jin your prayers as she acclimates to her new environment. Also be in prayer for the 3 Liebachers as they have many doctor appointments scheduled. Congratulations Herb and Monica and welcome to your new home Emmeline Liebacher.
On a sadder note, please be in prayer for Monica and her family as they had to say good bye to her mother, Alison. Alison passed away approximately a week after Herb, Monica & Emmeline returned from China. They were able to say good bye in person. Also pray for Monica's father ,Bob who is 78 years old, not only is he grieving the loss of his wife , but he also needs cataract surgery.
Please be in prayer for the Liebacher family, new and old.
