January 2010

From the President.....

Happy New Year everyone!

Here we are, starting a new year. I am sure many of you, as I am, are looking back over the last year or maybe decade evaluating what went right and where things might not have gone so good. As for my family and me, we have had a difficult time the past few years as I am sure many have due to the recession, however when looking back, I have seen, more clearly the hand of God at work in our lives during those challenging times. The focus seemed to change from self-preservation to total reliance, and is this not what God wants from all of us regardless how secure we are? Also, our allowing the Holy Spirit to be in control is not easy, but is required to produce the kind of fruit that glorifies our God. This posed interesting questions, What is God's will for my life? And how will God use these trying times to glorify Him? Questions, I am sure many of us are asking.

We just celebrated the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ and looking back at this splendid moment in time where the Word became flesh it only reminds me of why this Prince of Peace came, to set everyone free, providing eternal life for those who believe! I have a picture hanging in my office of a manger in a darkened area, with a hint of a shadow stretching across the manger and onto the stone wall beyond the manger. This shadow is an image of a cross. Jesus, born to die. This does not just remind me of the past, but of the future also. As promised, our Great Savior will return and we are asked to be prepared and ready at any time. Are you ready?

We have a wonderful opportunity, to profess God's love to all. Let us focus on what God has given as gifts and blessings and let us look for ways to share these. Let's keep our eyes and ears open to what God will have us do, for Him. Don't miss an opportunity to be his hands and his feet. Opportunities are everywhere, you just need to be aware and prepared.

Tres Dias has been such a blessing to my family and me. This community which is like family in so many ways, has provided us with much love and a desire to seek God's will for our lives. We, as a community, also have a great opportunity to provide other Christians a chance to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ, by inviting them to a Tres Dias weekend. To provide them with tools and a desire to be a more active member of their churches, family and community: any of the environments we might be in, but even more so for the Body of Christ. May this year bring great joy to our Maker, Provider, Protector and our Savior

"Since you are my rock and my fortress, for the sake of your name lead and guide me." Psalm 31:3 NIV

Community News

Dear Community,

I have included in this month's Newsletter other communities who will have their own weekends in the month of January. I would encourage you, along with Nanci and myself, to participate in sending palanca their way. Here we have an opportunity to be God's hands and feet, no matter the distance, to extend love and grace just like we received during our personal weekend. I like the way the international website describes palanca, "Bear in mind that letters in and of themselves are not palanca! Letters are merely one vehicle in which we convey the actual palanca being done at that time. In other words, the effort, thoughts and prayers that go into the letters are actually the palanca, not the letters themselves."

(<http://www.tresdias.org>)

Here are examples of palanca:

PERSONAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on behalf of individual candidates and team members. It is most frequently demonstrated in personal notes that are not meant for anyone but the recipient.

- A brief note of encouragement
- Reassurance that God will meet the candidate right where he is
- Adding an encouraging scripture is recommended (reminding of God's promises, etc).
- Let them know you are praying for them (and do it!).
- It is important to have personal palanca available for Friday and Saturday. (It's a lever, so use it).
- You can include small items that can fit in an envelope can be included. Such as "pass it on" cards, small bookmarks, small pins, etc.
- Do not refer to any special events that happen over the weekend. Your palanca may not be delivered when you expect it to be, so you wouldn't want to spoil the surprise.
- Do not refer to home or family. It's important to maintain the focus and sequestered nature of the weekend.
- Do not talk about how you felt on your weekend. The candidate may be having a very different experience and you wouldn't want to set him/her up for disappointment.
- Do not mark palanca for delivery at specific times. You may specify a particular day, as well as "am" or "pm", but not specific times.

GENERAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on the weekend in general. It is most frequently demonstrated in notes, letters or posters that are addressed to the team and candidates, often accompanied by small gift items or tokens.

- The letter should be addressed to the team and candidates on a particular weekend. It should include the actual palanca that you will be providing to the weekend - such as:
 - A gift of prayer. Let them know that you will be praying for them. Perhaps you will pray for the weekend every time you have to stop at a red light, or something like that. They should know it. (And you should be sure to honor your commitment)
 - A gift of sacrifice: Perhaps you made something that you are giving to the weekend. Let them know the spiritual significance of the item.
 - Try to include an encouraging scripture. Using the theme scripture of the weekend helps to promote the unity of the weekend.
 - The letter shouldn't be too long - a maximum of one typewritten page. Keep in mind that general palanca is read by the auxiliaries throughout the weekend when time permits, so the letter should not be too long or complex as its meaning may be lost.
- ⇒ This IS where you can refer to your own weekend ("I sat where you are sitting...")
- ⇒ If possible, include small tokens for the team and candidates. The items should have some spiritual significance and can be as simple as some chocolate or candy, as complex as craft items that you and your Reunion Group made, and anything in between. Remember it's the thought, prayer and service that's important, not the actual item itself.
- ⇒ General palanca is also provided in other ways:
 - Providing break food (snacks).
 - Providing candy for the tables.
 - Providing flowers for the dining room or Rollo room.
